Dear [redacted]

Freedom of Information request

Thank you for your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), which was received by the Human Tissue Authority (HTA) on 21 August 2018. Your email outlined the following request:

> Dear Sir/Madam,
>
> I am emailing you in regards of obtaining contact information for the most suitable person to contact via telephone/email/post. If possible, could you forward me on relevant contact information for any persons specialising in;
>
> ¬ Information Security
> ¬ Information Technology
> ¬ Data Protection
> ¬ Information Governance
>
> I would be very grateful if you could you state their position within the company also.
>
> Said information will be used to contact the relevant client regarding our state-of-the-art cyber security awareness platforms and e-learning modules, which in turn make staff more vigilant with their data protection approach – keeping your companies' data safe and less likely to be part of a data breach.
>
> Many thanks in advance,

Response

I can confirm that the most suitable person, specialising in the above aspects of information technology and governance, at the HTA, is the Head of Business

Technology, who can be contacted via enquiries@hta.co.uk or by calling 0207 269 1900.

Further information

If you are unhappy with the way the HTA has handled your request for information in this case, you may in the first instance ask us for an internal review by writing to us at the above postal or email address.

If you remain dissatisfied with the handling of your request or complaint, you have the right to appeal directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision, at the address below. There is no charge for making an appeal.
